SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information.—EDITOR.

ALASKA MISSION

BISHOP MATTHEW S. HUGHES, in Charge

The distances for travel are so great and the expense so large that no attempt was made to hold a meeting of the Mission this year.

A new interest is developing in Alaska since the era of railroad building has set in. We have an investment at Anchorage, a town of three thousand inhabitants, up on Cook inlet near the coal mines, and the terminal of the projected Fairbanks railroad.

Alaska needs a larger hearing and an increased interest on the part of the church.

REV. ADNA BRADWAY LEONARD, LL.D.

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" When Adna B. Leonard fell, one of the greatest men of Methodism went from us —great in consecration, in courage, in intellectual ability, in heart, and in life. Whoever questioned his sincerity, doubted his courage, or challenged his consecration? His life was not only as an open book, but a great inspiration to multitudes. Son of John and Nancy Davis Leonard, he was born in Mahoning County, Ohio, August 2, 1837. As a farmer boy he had plenty of hard work, but scant school advantages. At twelve, he was "tormented" with the conviction that he should preach, and later began preparation by attending school during the winter and teaching during the summer. His thorough conversion at an altar of prayer during a revival deepened the conviction, and at twenty-four he accepted his first appointment, junior preacher on Marlboro Circuit, Pittsburgh Conference. Years later, by persistent non-resident study, he won the college degrees. Trained to hard work, developed physically and intellectually, fearless in attacking evil and courageous for righteousness, he was ready for any emergency. Little wonder that he soon came to leadership in the Cincinnati Conference, of which he became a member in 1873; also in the General Conference, of which he was eight times a member. As a leader, he inspired the Church with a vision of world-wide conquest for Jesus Christ. He was preeminently an international statesman. Such qualities made him the standard bearer for Prohibition in Ohio in 1885, and his vote for Governor has never been equaled in the State by a Prohibition candidate. He wrote the words, and helped make them a part of the Discipline and platform of the Methodist Church, "We are unalterably opposed to laws that propose to license, tax, . . . to regulate the drink traffic. We hold that the proper attitude of Christians toward the traffic is one of uncompromising opposition." It was this spirit that led the Church to select him a Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society in 1888, and continue him in that responsible trust for twenty-four years, a longer period than that served by any other man; and only at his request relinquished him in 1912, but unanimously elected him Corresponding Secretary Emeritus. He literally gave himself to the great task, and how well he succeeded the whole Church knows. With the power of God upon him, as a prophet he went throughout the land, arousing the Church until she caught the vision and gave most liberally of men and money. He gave the Church the benefit of his close and careful observations. Safe in counsel, the Church trusted him. When the Methodist Church of Japan was organized, he was one of the commissioners appointed for that task, so that it was a happy coincidence that at the funeral services the Rev. Dr. Obata, Fraternal Delegate to the General Conference of 1916 from Japan, should speak in behalf of that people. He died in his home in Brooklyn, New York, April 21. The funeral services were held in Sumner Avenue Church, Brooklyn, Easter eve, his pew filled with Easter lilies which remained there over Easter Sabbath. The services were in charge of Dr. Bell, pastor. Addresses were made by Bishop Warne, Dr. (now Bishop) Oldham, Drs. W. V. Kelley and Obata, and the pastor. Bishop

Warne said: "Doctor Leonard had a spotless Christian character. No missionary will have to make apology for the life and character of Dr. Leonard, but the testimony will be borne, he had a spotless character, which is of priceless value. His unique personality made him a marked man as a Secretary. His missionaries were to him as children, and we saw and felt this side of his nature."

Dr. Kelley said: "He was the embodiment of what a President of the United States called 'truculent righteousness'; intolerant animosity toward iniquity. He was a man of conscience. Like Luther and Lord Garrison, having taken his stand under the orders of conscience, he stood there calmly. He left all with God. It took no courage; it took only trust in God."

The remains were conveyed to Springfield, Ohio, and laid to rest in beautiful Ferncliff, beside the wife who had preceded him in 1899. During his first year in the ministry, February 19, 1861, he was united in marriage to Miss Caroline Amelia Kiser. Let his own testimony from the dedication of his autobiography describe this relationship of many years: "To the memory of my beloved wife, for thirty-eight years a constant inspiration to my ministry and the center of my home circle. She went away August 31, 1899, but the memory of her loving, devoted life remains a sweet incense. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her." Two children died in infancy, five remain: Bishop Adna Wright Leonard, Mrs. May Leonard Woodruff, Corresponding Secretary Woman's Home Missionary Society; Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher, National Jubilee Commissioner of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; Mrs. Lillian Leonard Slack, President New York East Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society; and Mr. Asbury C. Leonard, of New York City.

REV. WARD DELOS PLATT, D.D.

The making of a loyal and kingly soul is God's highest piece of fine art. He begins with the genesis of a living soul and ends with the quickened spirit. The pattern is Jesus Christ. Such a soul tabernacled in the mortal body of Ward Platt. It was a journey of sixty-three years, from the little town of Dayton, New York, to Brandywine, Pennsylvania, where he died May 30, 1916.

In the village of Hamburg, which had become the home of Ward's parents, under the preaching of V. R. Blighton, he surrendered his heart and life to Jesus. All the after years have shown how complete was that dedication of his all. His early attempts at preaching gave unmistakable promise of God's call to the higher work. What was said of one of old could also apply to him, "He is a chosen vessel of mine." Each charge which he served during his forty years, as a member of Genesee Conference, revealed his growing soul. He was constantly planning larger things for his Lord and Master. In 1875, at the Conference held in Asbury Church, Buffalo, the church which gave Ward his first license, he, with five other young men, was taken on probation, and sent to Eden and North Evans. During the previous year he had served this charge as supply for several months, winning thereby a place of welcome as pastor.

His second charge was East Aurora. Here he planned and carried on a Sunday School Institute in his Sunday school equal to a young Chautauqua. Then followed a popular pastorate at Churchville. Three years at Lawrenceville and Lindley and thence to Naples. While here he, together with T. F. Parker and the writer, planned the Silver Lake Assembly. Hornell; Monroe Avenue, Rochester; West Avenue, Rochester; Plymouth, Buffalo; in each of these charges he gave great satisfaction. He was next given Buffalo District. Here he showed his accumulated wisdom in bringing about a most successful Laymen's Missionary Convention. Next, he was chosen to fill a vacancy in the staff of secretaries of the Church Extension and Home Mission Board. In this field he developed his skill and talents, as an executor and writer. He traversed the United States in all directions studying conditions and suggesting plans of work for the whole church. The rural church, with its intricate problems, made a heartfelt appeal to him. Out of a rich experience, a love for his brother preacher, and a deep understanding of conditions and superior wisdom, given him from on high, he has helped to redeem, what appeared to be, a lost situation.

As a preacher he excelled. He was a soul winner. He knew how to win others to himself that he might give them to Christ. He was gifted with a chaste imagination. He was an artist in words. The writer will never forget the first sermon he heard him preach. It was in the early summer of 1874, in the little Methodist Church in North Evans. It was a hot night, the house was crowded to its utmost capacity, to hear the young preacher. The theme was, "God's Created Heavens." For over an hour he held the closest attention of every one there. And we all went out to look, with a more reverent attitude, at the stars above us. We each caught some of his spirit as he led us forth in our "Father's House of Many Mansions."

For forty years he was loyal to his high conception of duty, and made full proof of his ministry. The Genesee Conference did not fail to see in him a worthy representative, sending him, as its delegate to the General Conference, each successive quadrennium from 1900 to 1916.

In his domestic life he was blessed with the loving comradeship of Mary Jane Barnard, who became his wife in the summer of 1878. For twenty-eight years she was his helpmeet and delightful companion, till the angel messenger called her to the "Mansion of Light." Four years later he was again joined in marriage with a niece of Mrs. Platt's, Miss Alice Barnard.

In Brandywine Summit, just a little past mid-day on the thirtieth of May, angel wings were heard hovering in the air, when the spirit of Ward "flew away" to be with Mary, with his mother, and the other dear ones who had gone on before. Brief services were held on June 1st, under the trees, on the lawn at Brandywine, conducted by the resident pastor. Bishop Berry paid a loving tribute and offered prayer. The remains were brought to Buffalo, New York, the next day. The funeral services were held in Asbury Church at 2 P. M. F. H. Coman had charge of the services. Scripture selections were read by H. A. Reed and Ray Allen. Joseph Dennis offered prayer. T. O. Grieves read a message of sympathy from Bishop Burt. Short addresses were made by Brothers F. H. Coman, James Moss, G. M. Harris, and Peter Thompson. Musical selections were rendered by the Conference Quartette and Mrs. Southall. The services closed with the benediction by E. C. Toy. Many pastors from various parts of the Conference were in attendance to show their esteem for the deceased. His mortal body was borne to its resting place in Forestlawn Cemetery where it awaits the "resurrection of the just."

GEORGE MORTIMER HARRIS.
